Join the Alliance Française of Guyana is an association that is part of a recognized network around the world. It is Georgetown's oldest center of French language teaching and your connection to everything French. As a member, you will be part of a vibrant community, gaining access to French language resources and stimulating cultural events that can only be found at our association. Your membership fees will help support our cultural programming and ensure a strong presence for French-speaking culture in the Georgetown area.

BENEFITS

The benefits of membership in AF Guyana include:

- access to French classes offered by the institution
- networking opportunities with French learners and native speakers
- exclusive access to information on upcoming events and workshops
- access to a collection of French titles for adults from our library
- eligibility and priority for registration for limited seating events/workshops
- discounts on events or workshops when applicable
- eligibility to vote at the General Assembly

To join or renew, please complete this membership form, then make an appointment with 6379426 to hand it in with your cash payment. Please tick one box.
